BROOM HOTEL CORNER

BREVITIES

Hazel Tout Wins Prize.—At a beauty contest in Empires hall, London, Hazel Tout of Ogden, won second prize. There were 45 young ladies in the contest.

Mrs. W. V. Cassidy will be the soloist at the Congregational church, this morning. Mary Parmley and Rosamund Laird will play the violin and piano. The evening service will be a service for young people with a sermon upon the New Jerusalem.

Italian Earthquake.—The theme of the sermon at the Methodist church, this evening, will be "Lessons From the Italian Earthquake." Those present will be given an opportunity to show their sympathy by contributing to the relief of the sufferers.

Engagement Announced.—Cards are out announcing the engagement of Miss Jennie Garr to Mr. S. G. Whitte, the marriage to occur January 5th at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Garr.

Former Conductor on a Visit.—Joe Holland a conductor on the Southern Pacific for many years, but now a hotel man at Wabash, Nevada, is in Ogden for a day renewing acquaintances. He has prospered in Nevada, but still holds a high regard for Ogden.

Crook "Touches" Merchants.—During the holiday season a smooth crook of genteel appearance operated in this city and managed to separate merchants and others from cash amounting to several hundred dollars. The stranger worked his scheme by the bold use of checks, which were presented in payment for small purchases with apparently the utmost self-possession. His easy manner disarmed all fears of the validity of the paper, and usually the merchant accepted the bogus check and gave him real money in return. The Crescent Jewelry company was one of the places which was victimized. The police of Ogden and Salt Lake have been furnished a good description of the fellow.

Young Ladies Go East.—J. F. Dunn, superintendent of motive power of the Oregon Short Line, arrived from the south yesterday in his private car, accompanied by Mrs. Dunn and Miss Margaret Dunn. The two ladies were placed on eastbound No. 10 and continued east where Miss Dunn will attend school for the next two years. The members of the party were met at the depot by Mr. and Mrs. Malone of this city.

In Business in Salt Lake.—George Fusch, until of late a resident of Ogden, has secured the bar privileges of the Newhouse skyscraper in Salt Lake and expects to open for business in the new structures about April next.

Secured an Overcoat.—A passenger named Jeff D. Chister, reported the loss of a light overcoat at the depot Friday, and it is supposed some sneak-thief took advantage of Mr. Chister's carelessness to provide himself with a desirable garment for the winter season.

In District Court.—In the district court the probate and motion calendars have been continued until next Saturday morning. The judge was held.

ing a regular term of district court at Morgan yesterday. The first case on the calendar Monday morning is that of the Wall Rice company against the Continental Supply Co.—Japanese concerns.

At the County Jail.—There are only five prisoners in the county jail at present, the lightest number at this season for several years, and three of these are serving jail sentences, while two are awaiting trial in the district court. Last year at this time the county jail was overcrowded and several trustees were occupying rooms not furnished with steel environments. With the exception of the cowardly murder of Deputy Sheriff Seymour L. Clark, the mystery of which is still being investigated by officers, the criminal record has been lighter during the last few months than for years, and a continuation of this condition is hoped for by everyone.

Arrests Made.—Owing to the absence of the police judge, there was no session of the court yesterday, which will necessitate an additional day in the battle for the unfortunates whose celebrations in honor of the new year left them stranded in durandale. There were a number of arrests during the night for various offenses against the peace and dignity of the commonwealth, including Levi Southwell, charged with disorderly conduct; Victor Bowman, drunk; John Doe, disturbing the peace; and D. J. Carr also accused of the use of violent and profane language, acting in a disorderly manner. The latter, it is stated, got into an altercation with a denizen of Electric Alley and, upon being ousted by the irate female retaliated by smashing a window and beating the woman about the face and shoulders with his fists. He will explain all Tuesday morning.

No Successor Named.—At the final meeting of the county board of education today, the appointment of a successor to Thos. E. McKay was not acted upon.

Gas in Cellars.—Escaping gas filled the cellars of many business houses yesterday. There was some trouble at the work, which was one cause, and a sewer in the central part of the city was clogged. The two sources of gas caused many protests to be made.

In Juvenile Court.—Judge Gunnell of the juvenile court is holding his regular weekly reception of youngsters in the commissioners' room at the court house yesterday, and the reverence and awe in which his honor is held is patent in serious faces of his wayward young friends.

One Case of Smallpox.—The family of Mrs. Richard J. Taylor, 2364 Jefferson, is quarantined for smallpox. Mrs. Taylor's daughter-in-law, Genevieve Taylor, was afflicted two weeks, but is convalescing after a very mild attack.

MET TERRIBLE DEATH.
Nanaimo, B. C., Jan. 2.—Nelson Faine, a carpenter aged thirty-five years, met with a terrible death here today while working in a mill. He was walking along a drift without a light and fell down the air shaft of a mine, dropping 600 feet. Death was instantaneous.

The ceremony, which was performed by Bishop McQuarrie, was witnessed only by immediate members of the two families. The bride wore a beautiful gown of cream satin and carried a large bouquet of bride's roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Eva Moyes, who was attired in a white wash chiffon and Chris Schmalz, brother of the groom, was best man. Following the ceremony, the wedding party sat down to the wedding supper.

From 8:30 to 11 o'clock in the evening, a large reception was tendered the young couple. In the parlors, the decorations were carried out in pink and green, smilax intertwined with pink satin ribbon being festooned from the chandeliers to the corners of the rooms. Pink and white carnations and roses were also used with charming effect.

Dainty refreshments were served by several little nieces of the bride, and punch was dispensed throughout the evening.

More than one hundred friends called during the reception hours to wish the young couple a happy and prosperous future.

Many handsome presents, among them, cut glass, hand painted china and silverware, were received.
